

related stories

Auburn Reporter

- Volunteers sought for Mary Olson Farm tours
- Haugen insists former rival 'is not my voice' in mayoral campaign
- 'Bleau Room' campaign is under way
- ADA needs volunteers for board
- Ilalko steps it up with carton recycling campaign

South King County

- Get free energy-saving light bulbs: Project Porchlight comes to Kent
- Project Porchlight to hand out energy-saving bulbs in the Highlands
- Rotary AIDS project looks for volunteers
- Leaders thank volunteers
- Volunteers show they care

News blogs

- Auburn Skies
Auburn Reporter editor Mark Klaas discusses all things Auburn, including comings and goings, local issues and community efforts

Volunteers sought for Project Porchlight campaign

Today, 10:36 AM

Project Porchlight, in conjunction with Puget Sound Energy, will be in Auburn to conduct a “Neighborhood Blitz” with a goal is to distribute 275,000 energy efficient light bulbs in the Puget Sound region. The blitz will be in Auburn on Thursday from 5:30-7:30 p.m.

Effort will begin from Veterans Memorial Park, 411 E St. NE, where volunteers are needed to deliver free CFL light bulbs to Auburn residents.

Volunteers also are needed on Oct. 10 and 11 at the Auburn Lowe’s location, 1232 A St. NE, for the “Rock the Bulb” bulb exchange program where customers can exchange up to 10 incandescent bulbs for Energy Star® qualified compact fluorescent light (CFL) bulbs of their choosing.

Visit www.rockthebulb.com for more information.

Project Porchlight is working to spread the message that “Simple Actions Matter,” even something as simple as changing a light bulb. For more information, visit www.projectporchlight.com.

Volunteers will receive a free T-shirt and refreshments a strong sense of contribution to the community and an investment into energy conservation and environmental progress.

For more information on volunteering for these events, contact Justin Calhoun at 206-321-8509 or justin.calhoun@porchlight.org.

Find this article at:

http://www.pnwlocalnews.com/south_king/aub/news/62622487.html

 Click to Print

SAVE THIS | EMAIL THIS | Close

Check the box to include the list of links referenced in the article.

Copyright ©2008 Black Press. All rights reserved.